

Chicago Counterpoint TV Features Top Chicago Divorce Attorney Maureen Gorman

On Tuesday, January 27th at 7:00PM (CST) renowned Fathers' Rights Attorney Jeffery M. Leving will host Chicago Counterpoint TV on CAN-TV's Channel 21. Chicago Counterpoint TV provides crucial legal education to single dads, men in divorce and Chicago family law attorneys looking to expand their professional knowledge. On the show, Leving continues to promote positive paternal involvement through legal education and mentorship.

The January 27th show will feature leading Chicago matrimonial and child custody lawyer Maureen Gorman, a zealous advocate of fathers' rights in the courtroom and before administrative tribunals. Attorney Gorman will discuss parental alienation as well as the devastating impact of false allegations of child and domestic abuse against fathers. She will also discuss her recent successful reversal of a Department of Children and Family Services ("DCFS") finding of abuse against her client.

Attorney Maureen Gorman

Chicago Counterpoint TV is an open, interactive forum. Viewers may call in and ask questions or leave comments. Viewers can also stream the show live at <http://cantv.org/live> and participate in discussions on the Fatherhood Educational Institute Facebook page.

About Maureen Gorman - At the Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving, Ltd., Attorney Gorman applies her sophisticated legal talents and passion for protecting fathers and children, to zealously advocating for fathers' rights in courtrooms and before administrative agencies. She is a highly respected litigator who has won four DCFS appeals in a row. Ms. Gorman has also served as Counsel for the Administrator of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission.

About the Host - Attorney Jeffery M. Leving (<http://dadsrights.com>) was named one of "America's Best Lawyers" by Forbes Radio™ and is co-author of the Illinois Joint Custody Act. Leving wrote the groundbreaking book on custody, Fathers' Rights, which hit #1 on Amazon's Best Selling Author's List. His other influential books include Divorce Wars and How to Be a Good Divorced Dad, which was endorsed by President Barack Obama and Cardinal Francis George, Archbishop Emeritus. He also is the chairman of the Illinois Council on Responsible Fatherhood (www.ResponsibleFatherhood.com) and founder of the Fatherhood Educational Institute (www.fatherhood-edu.org), which promotes fatherhood in impoverished communities.

CAN-TV (Chicago Access Network Television) has five local, non-commercial channels that reach over one million viewers throughout Chicago.

