

Leading Chicago Matrimonial Attorney James Hagler Appointed to Standing Committee on Judicial Evaluations

High-profile matrimonial attorney James H. Hagler was appointed to the Illinois State Bar Association Standing Committee on Judicial Evaluations ("SCJE"). Attorney Hagler's responsibilities as a member will include evaluating candidates for various judicial appointments and sitting judges seeking retention within Cook County. Hagler is the litigation director of The Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving, Ltd.

Attorney James Hagler

As a service to the public, the SCJE works diligently to produce meaningful evaluations on the qualifications of judicial candidates for all elections. This appointment will provide Hagler the opportunity to bring his fresh perspective to judicial evaluation in Cook County.

Attorney James Hagler has received several honors for his trial skills, including being named a Chicago Best Lawyer. Hagler is a multiple recipient of the Award of Merit from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Further, having served in the U.S. Army, Hagler is a tireless fighter for the rights of military dads. Recently Attorney Hagler met privately with Attorney Jeffery M. Leving and President Barack Obama to discuss important societal issues pertaining to fathers and children.

